

NEBOSH Environmental Management Certificate

The NEBOSH Environmental Management Certificate is a globally relevant qualification. You will be able to help your organisation manage its positive and negative environmental aspects and support the implementation and continuous improvement of effective environmental management systems.

This is a replacement qualification for the NEBOSH Certificate in Environmental Management.

Who should attend

Managers, supervisors and employees who have responsibility for managing environmental issues, as part of their day to day duties.

No previous environmental management knowledge is required but candidates should note the assessment includes a written report, after the course is completed.

Aims and Objectives

On successful completion of this course delegates will have a sound understanding of the principles of environmental management and have the tools to build an effective environmental culture within their organisation.

Course Content

The relevant environmental qualification will help you to:

- justify environmental management in the workplace
- recognise which workplace activities may be subject to environmental legislation or enforcement
- assess environmental aspects and impacts, and evaluate existing controls
- support environmental emergency planning
- understand the importance of reducing environmental harm
- outline the issues associated with waste and its management
- explain the pros and cons of various energy sources and how to use them more efficiently.
